THE MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION (DESE) IS TRYING TO STRIP THE ST. LOUIS SCHOOL BOARD OF ITS POWERS AND GIVE THESE 3 CHARACTERS THE POWER TO RUN OUR SCHOOL DISTRICT - RATHER THAN AN ELECTED SCHOOL BOARD! WE DEMAND DEMOCRACY – OUR RIGHT TO VOTE!!

“Ensuring that the more than 33,000 children who attend the largest school district in the state get a good education demands a strong sense of urgency from school leaders. And yes, a bit of outrage, too.” St. Louis Post-Dispatch February 18, 2007.
